1. Jen was happy to hear that Luke's dad was allowing his grain to do this, and she used her computer to post a message about it on the Department of Agriculture bulletin board.

2. If these people found Jen, her parents would not be able to bribe them.

3. It had a hallowed-out backseat where Jen could hide.

4. They were illegal, and the Government had shut down the factories that made them.

5. A shortage of this was the reason the Government gave for passing the Population Law.

6. Luke stayed in his room all day when this person came out to look at the Garners' crops.

7. Jen said it was incompetent and stupid.

8. Jen used this word to describe her trip to the mall because her mother made her try on dresses and bras.

9. The Government was trying to force everyone, even the Barons, to become one of these because vegetables could be produced more efficiently than meat.

10. Some of them went hungry because they didn't have food ration cards and their families didn't share.
11. Carlos used this word to describe Jen.

12. The one that had been forged for Jen identified her as her mom’s niece.

13. Jen was surprised that Luke ate this since even her dad had trouble getting it.

14. By using this password, Jen had been able to make contact with eight hundred shadow children.

15. On the third day when he got no reply to his signal, Luke worried about Jen because he knew she took a lot of these.

16. Jen’s dad said there was plenty of this, but the Government wasn’t distributing it right.

17. Jen had not answered Luke’s first signal because she was out with her mother doing this.

18. Jen invited Luke to take part in this, but just the thought frightened him.

19. Using one of these, Jen was able to use the computer to verify that Luke was safe because the Government said he didn’t exist.

20. Jen was confident that hundreds of them were planning to join the march on the Government to protest the Population Law.

21. Jen explained that Sean’s brother was one of these.

22. They helped Jen spread the password for the chat room to the other shadow children.

23. The Population Police got one of these for every third child they found.

25. Jen felt that confronting the Government with their existence would bring this for all the illegal children.

Chapter Twenty-one  Pages 100-106    Chapter Twenty-two  Pages 107-113

Write either True or False in the blank before each statement.

1. In February, Luke's dad got a letter from the Government forbidding him to grow anything indoors.

3. The Government law said that hydroponics was legal as long as it was not used to grow drugs.

4. Seeing that his father was worried about money, Luke again felt that he might be a burden for his family.

5. Without the hydroponics idea to research, Dad hung around the house, and Luke was able to visit Jen only once in February and twice in March.

6. As a small child, Jen had purposely been kept away from all third children who were kids of Government officials.

7. Due to the food shortage, no one, not even Barons, could afford to have pets.

8. Luke's father often talked about a dog and a cat that he had when he was a boy.

9. Luke felt guilty that the food he ate should have gone to animals as well as other people.

10. Jen informed Luke that there was more than enough food in the world, but the Government had gone on a campaign to make women think being pregnant was evil and criminal, and it wouldn't allow them to go anywhere once they got pregnant.

11. Jen's dad said the population was eventually going to be cut in half because so few babies were being born.

12. Jen was concerned that one of her brothers might turn her in for the large sum of money he could get from the Government as a reward.

13. Luke realized that his brothers were developing other interest and outgrowing him.

14. As long as he got to visit with Jen, Luke didn't mind not having the company of his brothers as much as before.
15. The third week of April, Jen told Luke that she was planning to take one of her parents’ cars, pick up three other shadow children, save room for him, and meet all the other shadow kids at the President’s house at 6 A.M.

16. As part of her planning tactics, Jen had used the computer to schedule days off for several of the Population Police.

17. As she talked about the rally, Jen looked rested and unusually calm.

18. Jen was confident the Population Police were not going to do anything to a crowd of a thousand shadow children, many of whom were related to Government officials.

19. Luke cautioned Jen that her friends from the chat room might not show up.

20. When Luke said he couldn’t go to the rally, Jen accused him of choosing to be a coward who hoped someone else would change the world for him.

21. Jen predicted that later, when he was free, Luke would hate himself for not going to the rally.

22. Jen agreed that Luke obviously didn’t mind hiding as much as she did.

23. When Luke said he was protecting her by coming to her house rather than asking her to visit his place, Jen cried.

24. Luke warned Jen that neither of them should go to the rally because it was too dangerous, and she coldly ordered him to leave.

25. To Jen, hope did not mean anything, and action was all that counted.

Questions for Chapter Twenty-Six

1. Where did Luke go?

2. What did Luke type on the computer?

3. What happened at the end of the chapter?
Write either True or False in the blank before each statement:

1. Luke knew what a gun was because they were one of the few things the Government had not made it illegal for common people to have.

2. Luke guessed that the man holding the gun was Jen's father.

3. After Luke introduced himself as Jen's friend and asked where she was, the man relaxed his gun hand.

4. Luke admitted that he was a third child, but he refused to tell the man anything about how he had met Jen.

5. Luke told the man that it wasn't because Jen had been careless that he had found her, but because he had been observant.

6. The man came to investigate because he had been notified when Luke shut the alarm system down.

7. As Luke explained why he hadn't gone to the rally with Jen, the man didn't seem to know what Luke was talking about.

8. Luke said trying to stop Jen from going to the rally would have been like trying to stop the sun.

9. Luke thought he might be having a nightmare when Jen's father said she was dead.

10. Because her father was a Government official, Jen's family had been allowed to bury her in the family plot and take several days of bereavement time.

11. All forty kids at the rally had been shot in front of the president's house, and the blood had been cleared away before the tourists came.

12. Jen's father believed that the Government would not have harmed the kids if there had been thousands of them as Jen had hoped.

13. Mr. Talbot cried and asked Luke if Jen really had thought the rally would work.
14. Luke couldn’t quite understand Jen’s strange willingness to sacrifice herself to help, or try to help, others.
15. Luke explained to Jen’s dad that she wanted to die because she was tired of hiding.
16. The Population Police were monitoring the chat room, and they would be able to trace Luke’s message to Jen’s computer within a day or two.
17. The Population Police had been able to find out everything about Jen and how she used the computer.
18. If they investigated too carefully, the Population Police would begin looking for Luke and search every house around Jen’s until they found him.
19. Mr. Talbot offered to get Luke a fake I.D. so he could be miles away before the Population Police came looking.
22. Mr. Talbot used his job to work inside enemy lines and do as much as he could to sabotage the Population Police, but Jen never understood how this could bring about change.
23. The truth about the population and food, according to Mr. Talbot, was not in the Government books or the underground printouts that Jen had given to Luke.
24. Jen’s dad had purposely passed along some slanted information to her because he wanted his daughter to hope that someday the Population Law would be repealed.
25. The Government was totalitarian, and nobody really knew the truth about the population and food supply.
26. The democratic government that once existed had been overthrown because a group of Barons wanted more than their share of the country’s wealth.
28. The Government purposely kept some people, like Luke’s family, living in poverty because they seemed to work harder when they were on the edge of survival.
29. The Government kept poor people from losing their farms, but none of them were allowed to live comfortably.
30. Mr. Talbot believed that the Population Law was absolutely necessary, even for the Barons.
31. The Population Law had been General Sherwood’s proudest accomplishment because it gave him so much control over people’s lives.
32. Luke wondered if he had been too scared to go to the rally with Jen because he believed it was wrong for him to exist instead of just being illegal.
33. Before Jen’s dad could leave to return to work, the Population Police were pounding at the door.
